Central Idea: In the days leading up to Christmas, most of us seem to be full of the Christmas Spirit. However, it isn't long after Christmas morning that this newfound enthusiasm quickly begins to wear off! Where do we find the needed motivation to live for Christ when Christmas is over? An examination of Simeon's story in Luke chapter two helps us to find our answer!

- I. His Character (2:25-26).
- II. His Song (2:27-32).

Scripture of the Week:

Whom have I in heaven but You? And besides You, I desire nothing on earth.

My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever. For, behold, those who are far from You will perish; You have destroyed all those who are unfaithful to You. But as for me, the nearness of God is my good; I have made the Lord God my refuge, That I may tell of all Your works.
